

Python assignment module - 1 (SDLC)

Q.1 What is software ?

Software is a collection of information, instruction and data to operate the computer.

Q.2 What are the types of applications ?

1. Mobile application.

Who can only install in mobile that's called a mobile application. Who basically made for mobiles. Like : whatsapp, inata, phone call etc.

2. Desktop applications.

This app is basically made for pc and computer.
Like: microsoft office, notepad etc.

3. Web application.

Without installing the app we can use the app through the browser that's called a web application.
Like : facebook, google etc.

Q.3 What is programming?

The programming is a process of making a program. basically is a technical process of telling a computer what kind of task to perform.

Q.4 What is python ?

Python is a computer language. Often used to build the website and software and analyst data. Python is a smart language among all programming languages. Like not specialised for any specific problem and use to create various programmes.